

Forklift Drive Units

Forklift Drive Unit - Instead of a transmission, a hydraulic pump is driven by the forklift motor. Hydraulic power from the pump is supplied to hydraulic drive motors that are connected to the drive wheels in order to provide power to the lift truck.